RACING DATES ALLOTTED.

AMERICAN TURF ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES ITS SCHEDULE TO AUGUST 28.

Essex Park to Open March 15 for 21 Days-Latonia Gets 30 Days-Committee On Rules Granted

More Time.

New Orleans, La., January 17 .- Directors of the American Turf Association met in the St. Charles Hotel tonight. The meeting was called to order, with a full membership present, President Matt Winn, of the Louisville Jockey Club, presiding. The meeting was held over from Monday so as to permit Edward Corrigan, who was absent on a trip

The following dates were granted to members the American Turf Association:

Essex Park, Hot Springs, Ark., March 15 to April 7, 21 days.

Cumberland Park, Nashville, Tenn., April 11 to 21, 10 days.

Lexington, Ky., April 23 to May 2, 8 days.

Churchill Downs, Louisville, Ry., May 3 to 29,

Latonia, Ky., May 30 to July 1, 30 days.

Windsor, Ont., June 16 to July 7, 19 days. Fort Erie, Ont., July 16 to August 28, 38 days.

The committee which has charge of the revision of rules was granted more time in which to re

Jockey Vincent Foy's application to be restored to good standing was denied.

Daily Racing Form was again made the official organ of the American Turf Association.

RUMORS OF A RINGER AT CRESCENT PARK. North Wind, the Winning 100 to 1 Shot, Is Satisfactorily Identified, However.

New Orleans, La., January 17 .- This was another eful day for the follo day for the followers of favorites at the Guiding Star in the fifth race, was the only first choice to get home in front. With such a card as was offered the results should not have been surprising. The races, with the exception of the sec ond, were made up of the cheaper horses—the in-consistent kind that are devoid of courage and stamina—and as to numbers the fields were cumbersome. North Wind, at odds of 100 to 1 was one of expected winners. Nearly every book in the ring had a clean sheet on him. Notwithstanding this lack of support, there was a rumor in the air after the race that the horse was a ringer. Re-sponsible persons vouched for his identity.

In Mimic's Daughter, winner of the second race, Len Marders appears to have the handling of a pretty good racer. This miss was making her initial appearance under the colors. She acted like a sen-sible old-timer at the post, broke quickly, bore repretty good racer. sible old-timer at the post, broke quickly, bore re-straint until given her head, then moved away from her opponents as if they were anchored away from her opponents as if they were anchored and won by six lengths easing up. She is a fine looking filly. Among today's visitors was James B. Brady, owner of Oiseau and other good horses. He said that Oiseau had up to the present wintered in splendid condition and gives promise of becoming the champion of the eastern handicap division. Mr. Brad was accompanied by a party of capitalists from the Mr. Brady east en route to Mexico. They departed in a private ohn, who had such a tremendous losing the past season on metropolitan tracks, had before his departure for Europe invested in 7,000 shares of copper at 91. The stock now is quoted at 114, which means a clear profit of more than $200,000 to Lewis

Willie Shields left tonight for the east where he will spend the next few weeks hunting in the Adirondacks. His horses here will be in charge of his father for the remainder of their stay.

Top weight of 130 pounds is assigned Phil Finch in the St. Charles Handicap at a mile and onequarter next Saturday.

STEEPLECHASE THE FEATURE AT CITY PARK.

Talent Has a Profitable Day-Pat Civill Decides to Sell His Horses.

New Orleans, La., January 17 .- There was a big crowd and lively betting at City Park this afterno Twenty Pencilers were in line and since only best backed horses was defeated it is evident that the spoils of yesterday were not long tained. The steeplechase was the chief attraction. The infield has dried out so that the footing was safe and good. The race was interesting from start to finish and was run without a mishap, if one excepts the bolting of Sceptre at the sixth jump.
All the others fenced in faultless fashion. Sceptre, probably as rapid a horse as races through the field. was making his first appearance here. In the early running he went at the jumps in resolute fashion, sarrying Evander along at a slip which made the latter quit after one turn of the field. Then Rip took command and he had things pretty much his own way from the seventh jump to the finish, although Chanley moved up and made a determined challenge in the last furlong, forcing Harvey Boyle to get busy with his mount at the end. Evander and Chanley both pulled up lame. The chances are that Evander will be on the shelf for some time to come.

Apart from the steeplechase, a mile sprint, eventh on the card, attracted the most attention. The field was a good one, with Orly always the choice, and he won after Gus Heidorn and Grace Wagner had alternated in setting the pace. Pat Civill, the owner of Orly, announces that he will sell all of his horses during the next two weeks.

Jockey W. Shea, who formerly rode in the east for R. T. Wilson, Jr., arrived yesterday from New York. He spent part of last season in Europe. He will probably ride for J. L. Hayman during the City Park meeting.

Edward Corrigan arrived this morning from Mem-ols. He was at the track bright and early watching his horses work and during the afternoon had the satisfaction of seeing his colors first at the finish in two of the races.

Sig Levy drew stand number nineteen, situated at the lower end of the ring. As a rule this is rated as a bad ring position and Levy gave the stand to Amort Simons. Simons held out some of the choice and won on the afternoon's betting.

'HOLD ON JIMMY" CAUSES MORE TROUBLE

Spectators at Oakland Believe Him Responsible fo Cloche d'Or's Defeat-More Mud and Rain.

San Francisco, Cal., January 17 .- Protracted and torrential rains continue to seriously handicap the local racing. Massa was the solitary successful favor ite of the afternoon. The suddenly improved Jak Sanders won the $1,000 special at a mile and furlong from the heavily backed Bob Ragon. An strongly supported horse, Cloche d'Or, owed her defeat in the fifth race solely to the "hold on" tactics of the starter's assistant. The majority of the spectators could see no reason for such measures at the post with the well behaved Coffey mare and expressed their disapproval by a noisy demonstration directly after the start. At today's "cut in" thirty applied for positions in the betting ring. ia Burch and R. Angarola's string are expected daily from Los Angeles, likewise jockey W

JOCKEY NICOL IS SUPERSTITIOUS.

Memphis, Tenn., January 17.-When Dave Nicol, the Chicago lad who led all the jockeys for twelve months' work in the saddle during 1905, received a copy of Daily Racing Form with the statistics which placed him in the lead of jockeys for the year, he immediately wrote to a friend here expressing him self in a manner that shows he is not averse to uperstitious ideas.
"I felt as a

"I felt as early as June," wrote Nicol, "that I was bound to lead the list for the year. I carried a luck piece in the shape of a gold medal Mickey Shannon let me wear. I hung it around my neck in every race I rode Sysonby and never lost a race. forgot it many times and can truthfully say that I never won a race during the entire season without the little medal on my person. Mickey told me when he gave it to me that it would bring me luck. It brought him luck, too, for it was presented to him you Memphis friends of his when he trained his first stake winner.'

KING OF COINS IS DESTROYED.

Lexington, Ky., January 17.—King of Coins, the English-bred young stallion owned by J. S. Stoll, is dead at the Meadows Stud. While out for exercise on the icy ground he fell and broke a leg and had to be destroyed.

The dead sire was from the famous Maid of Masham branch of the family from which there came also the good colt Sysonby, the champion race-horse of 1905. King of Coins was by St. Simon, out of Lady Minting and was foaled in 1898. For his dam James R. Keene paid the sum of $17,000 in a ublic sale at Coins was brought to America by H. Eugene Leigh after a season in his stud at Chantilly, France Last December he was placed in the sales of Kentucky Sales Company and sold to J. S. Stoll for $395. He was a consistent winner in his racing days, but he had little opportunity in the stud.

MAHER CONSIDERS ROCK SAND BEST.

"I consider Rock Sand the best horse in England," said jockey Danny Maher to an eastern newspaper man recently. "At least, he has always been a favorite with me, although I must admit that the mare Pretty Polly is the greatest thoroughbred I have ever seen. She can win at five furlongs or have ever seen. She can win at five furlongs or five miles. She is at her best at one mile and a quarter, however. Bachelor's Button is another good He has been defeated once in the Grand Prix de Municipal at Paris by Presto, a French racer. Cicero, the Derby winner, is another.'

INTRODUCTOR BREAKS HIS NECK.

New Orleans, La., January 17 .- While schooling through the field after the last race at City Park, J. C. Ferriss, Jr.'s, Introductor fell and broke his neck; his rider escaped unhurt. Introductor bred by Tom Ryan, who formerly raced him and sold him to Ferriss last summer. He was considered the most promising green jumper shown in the west in a long time.

DAN STUART IS CRITICALLY ILL.

New York, January 17 .- Dan Stuart, the Texas porting man and part owner with John Condon, of Chicago, in the Oaklawn racetrack at Hot Springs, is critically ill with pneumonia at his residence in this city. Physicians say that his chances for recovery are meager.

Went to post at 1:58. At post 1 minute. Start good. Wen easily; second driving. Optional ran to best form, forced the early running, wore down Pinsticker with ease and won easing up. Pinsticker no mishaps and ran a good race, but tired in the final drive. Sea Voyage, showing steady improvet, came with a rush near the end and was fast wearing Pinsticker down. Triple Silver lost much mid by going wide and ran a good race. Girdle showed speed, but quit badly †Coupled in betting; no separate place or show betting.

Time, 12, 233, 303, 433.

Winner—B, f, by Cesarion—Mimic (trained by B, L. Marders).

Went to post at 2:28. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Monghter, a fine looker, ran a sparkling race, broke like an old timer and ran straight all the way.

Into a long lead when called on and, increasing her advantage, won eased up to a canter. Miss had no mishaps, was away well, ran gamely and was a fast going second. Jake Hardy, away the start and fair in the second with a cosh. Our Osn showed a fine turn of speed, but thred badly last sixteenth. May Gilmore bolted at the start and ran with blinkers on, which probably caused act fractionsiy. Hereafter showed much speed, but bolted on the stretch turn.

Corrected weights—Miss Hynes, 109.

Went to post at 3:26. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. North Wind ran in surprisingly improved form, was lucky to escape interference and saved ground all the way, stood a hard drive in the stretch and outgamed King Ellsworth. The latter began slowly and was last while rounding the first turn and was rushed into contention too hastily, causing him to tire in the final drive. Bell-the-Cat ran a good race and is showing improvement. Reidmoore seemed to sulk and was sharply cut off on the lower turn, but came fast near the end. Lucky Joe tired badly after going a good half. Doctor Dan and Gamara showed speed.

Winner—Ch. g, by Requital—The Heroine (trained by J. J. Ogles).

Went to post at 4:27. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Decoration, lucky to escape interference and showing much speed, paced steadily from the far turn home and won with plenty in reserve. Sincerity Belle, badly ridden, lost much ground by going wide, but closed a big gap and finished a fast going second. Los Angeleno began with his customary slowness, but finished with a rush and outgamed Jerry Lynch. The latter had a rough trip and suffered from much interference. Evic Greene also had a rough trip. Chub was knocked back early.

Scratched—59589 Jim Collins, 101.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

T. H. Stevens has shipped his horses from Oakland

It is likely that there will be two meetings at Providence this year.

After the running of the Burns Handicap, W. W. Elliott will ship his horses to Hot Springs.

Lady Goodrich, which pulled up lame in her race at Oakland December 2, is being galloped again.

E. J. Baldwin is again at Oakland. He spent a fortnight, including the holidays, at Santa Anita.

Will Applegate is now booking at Oakland. He cut in last Saturday for the first time this season. Weights for the Burns Handicap are due next Monday. The race will be run the Saturday followsation was created at Lexington, Ky., when

T. Graves was fined $25 for operating a hand-Jockey J. Ranch is visiting his relatives at Bak-ersfield, California. He will leave for France about

March 1. Gus Lanka, one of John Bratton's jumpers, dis located a stifle while being schooled at City Park Tuesday. Trainers J. J. Hyland and Staber Willets, of New York, are at Lexington, Ky., looking for racing

William C. Goodloe has resigned his position as ssistant general manager of James B. Haggin's Elmendorf Stud.

Among the two-year-olds registered with the Jockey Club in England by Richard Croker is one named Senator Tim. When Tarrigan won at Oakland last Friday,

"White Hat" McCarty scored his first victory in several seasons at the San Francisco track. Plans are being laid for a meeting of seventy-two days at Seattle. It is said the betting ring will be open to all reputable bookmakers this year. Jockey Eugene Hildebrand is on a hunting trip in exas. It is reported that he may ride in Europe if his license is restored by the Jockey Club. A dispatch from Nashville says it will be known there will be any racing in Tennessee this year. On Monday next Jake Holtman and Dick Dwyer will switch the scenes of their operations at the barrier, Dwyer going to Oakland and Holtman to Ascot Park. Californians in guessing at the weights for the Burns Handicap give the top impost to Proper or Lubin, with Bearcatcher and Eugenia Burch close up and Dr. Leggo fifth on the l.st.

The filly by Star Ruby, out of Irony (grandam of Flying Fox), which was knocked down to R. Bowen for $5,500 at the Rancho del Paso dispersal sale and shipped immediately to England, has been entered stakes over the water in the name of W. Astor.

Trainer Bob Tucker arrived at Lexington Tuesday to take up his work with the stable which is to race in the colors of Captain W. H. Brown. The horses are now quartered at the Kentucky Associa-

Lexington meeting, when they will be sent east.

"If the general slaughter at Ascot continues, says a dispatch from Los Augeles to the Cincinnati Enquirer, "the piker may realize his foud dream of the bookmakers perched on the fence like so many crows." There's that if again, but foolish piker to dream thus. With whom would the piker pike were his dream to become a reality?

Troubadour, which died a day or two ago at Senorita Stud, was bred at Woodburn Farm by the Messrs. Alexander. He was sold at auction as a yearling for $400 to D. J. Swigert, who raced him a time or two as a two-year-old and then sold him to Milton Young for $3,500. In the fall of his three year-old form he was bought by Captain S. S. Brown at the dispersal sale of Milton Young's stable for $7,400. Troubador was trained for his Suburban and other great victories by John W. Rogers.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

B. & M., St. Louis, Mo. The place bet en the Corrigan entry won.

E. T. B., Chicago. It was void as to Benmor nd stood as to Usury.

Edwin C., Galesburg, III. The Chief Bush show price should have read 21 to 1.

P. W., Chicago. The parlay was void as to Harmakis and won as a place bet on Ruth W.

T. L., Toronto, Ont. The bookmaker's proposition was more than fair since he had the right to call the Polly Prim bet a draw, on the ground that there

"IN THE MONEY" WITHOUT FINISHING FIRST.

Bracketless Two-year-olds of 1905 that Shared in the Distribution to Horsemen.

There were 313 two-year-olds of 1905 that earned without finishing first in any race during the Of this number 119 were never better than third. The horse in this division to start the great nber of times was Gentian, the son of Knight of the Thistle and Genevieve, which carried the colors of "Father Bill" Daly in 53 races, making his first start at Bennings on March 27. Although he is bracketless, Gentian has paid his way. At the dispersal sale of the Fairview Stud in October 1902, August Belmont paid $750 for Genevieve, which had been bred to Knight of the Thistle. The foal which came in 1903 was Gentian. He was sold at the auction of the Nursery Stud yearlings June 25, 1994, to Mr. Daly for $550. Gentian's carnings last year were $890, or $540 more than his first cost to his owner. Had Daly to pay a jockey fee of $10 in each of the 53 races, he would have been out the cost of feed keep and entered for the cost of feed, keep and entrance fees, but since "Father Bill" rides his contract boys, Gentian doubtless shows a profit to his owner after a strennous year. At any rate, he has made better returns for his fodder than any other of his age that cost ten times as much in the auction sales.

Winner—B. f, by Brantome—Ethel VI. (trained by J. Collins).

Went to post at 2:54. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Begonia was crowded back soon after the start, but closed a big gap and, finishing with a rush, caught Oliver tiring and outgamed him in the final drive. Oliver raced Red Ruby into defeat in the early stages and ran a good race, saving ground all the way. Heart of Hyacinth met with interference and lost ground in the first sixteenth, but finished fast. Margaret Angela closed a big gap in the last quarter. Lieber was sharply cut off and crowded back on the backstretch, but finished with a rush. Red Ruby showed good speed and was eased up at the end. Monita ran well to the stretch, then quit as if short.

Scratched—59699 Judge Parker, 119; 59495 Goldbearer, 115; 59446 Rain Devils, 122; Colonel Bartlett, 112. 112.

Winner—B. g, by Orvieto—Eily (trained by P. M. Civill).

Went to post at 4:49. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Orly broke well and ran well up with the leaders all the way, raced Grace Wagner into subjection on the far turn and drew away at his leisure in the stretch run. Grace Wagner ran a good race, but had to be hard ridden at the end to stall off St. Tammany. The latter finished fast and gamely. Elliott lost ground by making a very wide turn when entering the homestretch, but by no means ran to his true form. Gus Heldorn ian well to the stretch and tired.

OTIS SCORES AGAIN.

(Extract From Chicago Daily News January 16).

Barney Schreiber and his stable continue to win the money out on the coast. Jim Pendergast carried the Schreiber colors yesterday at Oakland and won the second race by a nose from Captain Burnett. Pendergast was well backed in the betting ring, however, and many of the bokmakers were hit hard. George Otis and his friends forced the price from 4 to 1 to 13 to 5 on the Schreiber colt.

For the benefit of those who contemplate using my service and wish to be informed on the summary below. I will state that the fifteen horses listed are the winners from twenty sent out by me since December 10 (scratched not counted, of which there were three). I have not had more than two straight losses (I consider a horse that places or shows a loss), out of eight horses given by me since January 1; two have lost, one January 6, the other January 12, the other six won. I can back up these assertions with absolute proof and money. I hold out no alluring promises to any one and at no time have I ever resorted to unscrupulous methods to influence or decoy prospective patrons. If you are willing to limit your bets to a few a week, I think I can be of service to you, surely the results attained by my clients and the organization have been sufficient to warrant this claim. sufficient to warrant this claim.

$5,000 GUARANTEE.

I will give to any living person the sum of $5,000, who can show that I have used any methods to increase my patronage which border on deception, trickery, double dealing, delusion, begullement, sham, duplicity or artifice, I will give $5,000 to any person who can demonstrate that in any particular the record below has a line of fabrication, This offer is not only made to the general public, but to any of my clients who are fully aware of what I have done. I will not only pay this sum with a certified check on the Federal National Bank of Chicago, but will allow in addition a single full column space in this publication which I will pay for, to the person to denounce me as an impostor. I make the above offers without reservation, not only to those who contemplate coming in and my clients, but to the fellow who has been "bunked" elsewhere and may be tempted to say: "Well, he gives three or four horses a day and then takes one that wins and advertises it."

Nothing Given Out Past Two Days.

Owing to the fact that a misdirected telegram went astray, we would have got Froerastinate, the horse I gave out January 12, which ran short. The wire from San Francisco did not reach me until 2:15 wire from San Francisco did not reach me until 2:15 p. m. yesterday. You all know what I had to say about him in my letter of January 3.

Some day this week I will give out to my clients a trick that they can get down for a good bet and feel reasonably safe. The price should be from 5 to 20 to 1, according to the company. This is the one which was the subject of my letters of December 18 and January 1. The horse is at New Orleans and the clique are getting ready for a coup. It is very imperative that my clients hold in readiness that they may avail themselves of this affair. In the event of your address changing, kindly notify me by wire immediately. wire immediately.
